

Blower Truck Driver / Operator

Applied Landscape Materials, Inc. is a family-owned business focused on providing and installing natural and recycled wood mulch materials to commercial, municipal, educational, and homeowner clients throughout Northern California. Applied Landscape Materials, Inc. utilizes state-of-the-art blower trucks for delivery and installation.

The CDL Class A Driver is responsible for loading, driving, and operating a blower truck. They also participate in the labor of installing the wood mulch material at the job site, as well as clean-up of the site directly following installation.

Responsibilities:

- Manage and execute landscape bark and mulch jobs
- Conduct daily inspections of the vehicle at the end of the shift and report any problems or damage to management
- Installation site clean-up
- Miscellaneous other labor involved duties
- Manage routes and routines so they proceed in the most effective way possible
- Observe and report equipment or mechanical failures immediately
- Comply with all DOT and in-house regulations and rules
- Serve as a brand advocate and ambassador in every interaction with clients and the public
- Find ways to conserve resources, including fuel, to benefit the business
- Travel daily throughout the state of California
- High availability – weekends and occasional overnights may be required

Requirements:

- Class A driver's license in good standing
- No serious tickets or accidents in the last 5 years
- No DWI/DUI in last 10 years
- 2+ years of commercial driving experience
- High School diploma / GED required
- Minimum of 1 year equipment operation experience

Physical Demands:

- Walking; Pulling and carrying 5" rubber hose in and out of job sites

Benefits:

Medical Insurance, Prevailing Wage Projects, Return Home Daily, Occasional Overnight Required, Company will pay for all overnight accommodations and meals

Job Type: Full-time

Average Hourly Pay Range: $28.00 - $35.00/hour with Over-time & Prevailing Wage

Email your resume to almquotes@gmail.com or call 916-626-9603